

SOCIETY

There is just a suspicion that the ranks of society will be depleted by July, for many members are preparing to spend the summer months away from the islands. Society, however, will not want for entertainment as there are several weddings on the tapis for June and July and then there will be the advent of the Taft party, including Miss Alice Roosevelt, ten United States senators and double that number of representatives.

Miss O'Meara and Mr. M. J. O'Meara of Salt Lake City, who have been spending the past three months in Honolulu as guests at the Moana Hotel, depart on the Alameda for their home.

A stag dinner was given at the Tenney home last evening.

A party of sixteen young men had an outing last week Saturday and Sunday at the von Holt ranch and it was a jolly outing according to the reports.

Mrs. W. T. Rawlins expects to leave shortly for a visit to her old home in Bridgeport, Conn. She will remain over until the great college football game is played between Harvard and Yale.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Macfarlane are entertaining a week-end party at Ahulmanu Ranch.

In honor of the return of Mr. Tom May from England during the week, the old May home on Kinau street was given over to festivity on Friday evening. A dance was given in honor of the host's return, and it was also the birthday of Miss May. The guests danced on the large, open lanai, opening out upon a beautiful garden teeming with rare shrubbery. Palm branches and other greens were used in the garnishment of the lanai. Swaying Oriental lanterns bordered the driveway. Altogether it was a picture of tropical beauty. Mr. and Mrs. May and Miss Vera May received in the drawing room. Dancing, the serving of an elaborate supper and gayety comprised the features of an evening of enjoyment. Among the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphreys, and Mr. F. H. Humphreys, Sr., Judge and Mrs. Stanley, ex-Governor Cleghorn, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Baird, Miss Bertha Young, Mr. and Mrs. von Hamm, Miss Havens, Miss Helene Robson, Mrs. J. F. Siebe, Miss Marion Scott, Rev. Mr. Osborne and Mrs. Osborne and Curzon Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mist, Mr. and Mrs. Long, Miss Edith Mist, Mr. Herbert Mist, Miss Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Soper, Mrs. Charles Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Miss Ella Wright, Mr. and Mrs. von Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ross, Dr. Knudson, Mr. Robert Atkinson, Mr. Harold Dillingham.

Mr. Derby will shortly leave for Boston to visit with relatives. Mrs. Henry C. Brown is still confined to her apartments at Englewood with an injured knee. On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ivers gave a dinner party, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs. Charles B. Cooper, Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Walker, Messrs. Percy Benson and Judge Lindsay.

Mr. E. M. Watson will sail for California this week to claim his bride, Miss Louisa Bradley, of Visalia, Cal. On their return they will reside at the Hawaiian Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. von Holt will spend the summer with Mrs. Garston, Mrs. von Holt's sister, in the San Bernardino mountains, Cal.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Ida Gray Scott and Miss Maud Kinney will be the principals at a musicale to be given at the residence of Mrs. C. M. Cooke.

Judge and Mrs. Galbraith leave on the Alameda this week for the mainland.

The U. S. S. Boston has departed amid general regret, but the Bennington and the Princeton will soon be here, and that will compensate somewhat for the loss of the cruiser.

One of the interesting events in the social world will be the arrival here the early part of June of the Italian cruiser Umbria, sister ship of the Liguria which was here last year in command of Prince Luigi. The Italian cruisers are always hospitable. There is regret that the Italian Consul, Mr. F. A. Schaefer, and Mrs. Schaefer, should be absent when the vessel arrives.

Judge and Mrs. Robinson departed on the Logan for the coast.

The Castendyks of Hilo are doing much entertaining of late. Their most recent function was a fancy ball.

Mr. Claus Spreckels is calmly enjoying his visit to Honolulu. He is still at the residence of Mr. W. G. Irwin at Waikiki. The old Spreckels mansion on Punahou street is being renovated and the family may come down.

Miss Winston leaves for the coast on the Alameda on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hayes entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening for Mrs. Wright and Miss Watkins.

An informal tea was given on Friday by Mrs. Montague Cooke for Miss Louise Lefferts, her sister, who is to leave for her home in Brooklyn shortly.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Wood have booked for the steamer leaving for the coast on July 4. They will make an extended visit to mainland cities.

Captain Niblack, U. S. N., arrived safely in the U. S. S. Iroquois at Midway on Friday.

A number of the Hawaiian people of the city composed a pleasant luncheon party today at the Glenwood, the affair being in the nature of a farewell to Judge Hofgaard, who has been here since Saturday. Judge Hofgaard came to Riverside to bring his thirteen-year-old daughter, that she might complete her schooling in this city. He left on his return to the islands on the 1:30 this afternoon. Those who composed the party at the Glenwood were Judge Hofgaard and daughter, the Burketts, the Borchgrevinks, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Dole and Miss Emily Dole.—Riverside (Cal) Daily Press.

Mr. H. Holmes has taken the cottage of Judge Robinson in Manoa valley during the absence of the latter in California.

Why We Succeed

Every garment we make, please remember, is cut from patterns drafted from the individual measurement of the customer. We do not make use of the "block patterns" of the ready makers, which at best are but approximations of fit.

Our $15 suits are marvels of cheapness, paragons of fit and phenomenons of quality.

A NEW FISH STORY.

"Game warden lead a strenuous existence, it is said, and I know that some of them have to be pretty shrewd to carry out the work for which they are appointed," said M. L. Ferguson.

"I was told a story in a little town out on the edge of the State the other day which bears out this statement.

"A game warden found a man spearing pickerel through the ice. At the side of the little shanty in which the fishing was done lay a large pickerel. The game warden stole to the hut and threw open the door.

"Did you spear this pickerel?" he asked.

"I did that."

"Did you know it is against the law?"

"Well, you see that fish isn't dead," was the assured response. "I have been spearing catfish, and that pickerel kept getting in the way. I had to jab it lightly and lay it on the ice until I finish fishing. Then I will put it back."

"The game warden walked off."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A LIVELY ANIMAL.

He was a good-natured German and his face fairly beamed as he walked into a drug store. The first thing that caught his attention was an electric fan buzzing busily on the soda counter. He looked at it with great interest and then turned to the clerk.

"Py golly!" he said, smilingly "dat's a tamed lify squirrel vot you got in dare, ain't?"—Lippincott's Magazine.
